

THE MEDIEVAL HERITAGE OF THE PAULINE ORDER

-

ARCHAEOLOGY, BUILDINGS, LANDSCAPES

Workshop organized by Central European University

(Department of Medieval Studies, Cultural Heritage Studies Program)

in co-operation with the Hungarian National Museum, the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Research Centre for the Humanities, Archaeological Institute, and Eötvös Loránd University, Institute of Archaeological Sciences, Department of Medieval and Post-medieval Archaeology

18-20 June, 2015
Budapest

Conference Program

18 June, Thursday

Morning session: 9.30 – 12.30

Hungarian National Museum (Pollack Hall)

Language of the presentations: Hungarian. A brief summary in English or Croatian is provided for the Croatian colleagues after each presentation.

Welcome and introduction

Gábor Tomka, Hungarian National Museum, Budapest

Elek Benkő, Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Research Centre for the Humanities, Archaeological Institute, Budapest

József Laszlovszky, Medieval Studies Department and Cultural Heritage Studies Program, Central European University, Budapest

Beatrix F. Romhányi, Medieval Studies Department, Károli Gáspár University, Budapest

9.50-10.15 József Laszlovszky (CEU, Medieval Studies Department and Cultural Heritage Studies Program, Budapest):

Two late medieval Pauline monasteries in the scope of Visegrád

10.15-10.40 Gergely Buzás (Hungarian National Museum, King Matthias Museum, Visegrád): Remarks on the Pauline Monastery at Pécs-Jakabhegy

10.40-11.05 Balázs Bodó (Forster Gyula National Centre for Cultural Heritage Management, Budapest): Walls and Stones. Architectural survey of buildings and carved elements in medieval Pauline monasteries

11.05-11.15 Coffee break

11.15-11.40 Zoltán Simon (Forster Gyula National Centre for Cultural Heritage Management, Budapest): New research in the Pauline Monastery of Martonyi

11.40-12.05 Maxim Mordovin – Szabolcs Nagy (ELTE, Institute of Archaeological Sciences, Department of Medieval and Post-medieval Archaeology, Budapest): Preliminary results of the first archaeological research in the Pauline monastery of Bakonyszentjakab

12.05-12.30 Melinda Miskolczi – Gábor Szörényi (Herman Ottó Museum, Miskolc): The archaeological research of the Holy Spirit monastery in Miskolc.

12.30-12.45 Remarks, questions, discussion

Lunch break

Afternoon session: 14.00 – 15.45
CEU, Faculty Tower, 508

14.00-14.25 István Tringli (Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Research Centre for the Humanities, Historical Institute, Budapest): Historical and topographical problems of the Pauline monastery in Újhely

14.25-14.50 Máté Urbán (CEU, Cultural Heritage Studies Program, Budapest): Pauline pilgrimage sites in the Middle Ages

14.50-15.15 Ünige Bencze (CEU, Department of Medieval Studies, Budapest): Pauline monasteries in Transylvania – recent research

15.15-15.35 Katalin Pataki (CEU, Department of History, Budapest): Records on the dissolution of the Pauline order in 1786

15.35-15.45 Remarks, questions, discussion

16.00 Book launch: NEW PUBLICATIONS by faculty and alumni of the Department of Medieval Studies at CEU
(11 Nádor Street, Groundfloor, TIGY Room, CEU)

19 June, Friday

Morning session: 10.00 – 12.30
CEU, Faculty Tower, 409

Language of the presentations: English.

10.00-10.30 Beatrix Romhányi (KGU, Budapest): Recent development in Pauline research – historical monastic problems

10.30-11.00 József Laszlovszky (CEU, Department of Medieval Studies and Cultural Heritage Studies Program, Budapest): Medieval built heritage and archaeology of the Paulines

11.00-11.10 Coffee break

11.10-11.40 Pataki, Katalin (CEU, Department of History, Budapest):
Inventories of the Pauline Order - The Dissolution Files of 1786 in the Hungarian National Archives.

11.40-12.10 Zsuzsa Pető (CEU, Department of Medieval Studies, Budapest):
The study of Pauline monastic space in Hungary

12.10-12.30 Remarks, questions, discussion

Lunch break

Afternoon session

14.00 -16.00

CEU, Faculty tower, 409

Research on Medieval Pauline Monasteries in Croatia: History and Archaeology

14.00-14.30 Tajana Pleše (Croatian Conservation Institute, Department of Land Archaeology): Pauline monasteries in Late Medieval Slavonia (present day NW Croatia) prior to the Battle of Mohács - Results of interdisciplinary research during the last Decade

14.30-15.00 Silvija Pisk (University of Zagreb, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences): Pauline monastery of Blessed Virgin Mary on Garlic Hill: misinterpretations, concerns, special features, problems and possibilities

15.00-15.30 Kristian Bertović (CEU, Doctoral School of Historical Studies, Budapest): Frankapan patronage over the Pauline order

15.30-16.00 Remarks, questions, discussion

20 June, Saturday

Kesztölc-Klasmompusztá*–field trip (registration is needed until 16 June, 2015, noon)

Elek Benkő (HAS RCH Institute of Archaeology): New archeological research in the Pauline monastery of the Holy Cross (in English)

Department of Medieval Studies

CENTRAL EUROPEAN
UNIVERSITY

MAGYAR NEMZETI MÚZEUM

